

Non-Private Party Events: No minimum and no rental fees

Don't want to spend too much money to set up an event? Here at Tysons Biergarten we offer a FREE – No minimum requirements and no rental fee option for you. All you have to do is pick the space that most interests you and order some food from our "A La Carte" or our "All you can eat buffet Menu" (see attached). We will reserve a section for you and your guests to enjoy yourself. The space will not be 100% private but we will provide enough space to ensure your guests have plenty of room to move around.

- Bier Hall provides a community-oriented atmosphere right next to our bar, where we offer some of Germany and Belgium's finest beers, beer cocktails, wine and more for pictures click here:

We do not require a rental fee, bar minimum, or anything of the like. Our only requirement for group reservations is to pre-order some of our delicious food options from our "A La Carte" or our "All you can eat buffet Menu" which I have attached. Please feel free to email me back with any further questions or bookings, or stop by and enjoy a cold bier while we discuss the logistics of your party's reservation.

Other information to note:

-Reservations are not complete until you send us your food order and the food order is paid for.

-There is an automatic 20% gratuity added to all events

If you are interested in hosting a Free Non-private party with us send us an email at matt@tysonsbiergarten.com for any other inquires. We look forward to helping you create the best package that suits your events needs. We look forward to hearing from you soon!
